

HINDU TEMPLE OF FRESNO
TEMPLE GUEST ROOM POLICY

Purpose: Temple Guest Room provides temporary accommodation for the guests who provide spiritual discourses/activities during their stay at the temple.

Reserving the Guest Room: Devotee(s) sponsoring a spiritual discourse or activity can make a request on behalf of the guest. Such a request should be made to the Temple Management, in advance, prior to the sponsored event, by completing "Guest Room Request Form".

General Rules:

1. Accommodation is only for the length of stay necessary for providing spiritual discourses/activities at the temple. Such a stay can not exceed more than a week, during a calendar year. Prior approval of the management is necessary for any extension of stay.
2. Accommodation is limited only to an individual and not families.
3. Only the guest, with reservation made, can live in the accommodation provided.
4. Guests are required to observe the temple rules relating to the sanctity of the temple, while living on temple premises.
5. Any damages to the guest quarters will be the responsibility of the sponsors.
